God said to the snake...
he will crush your head and
you will strike his heel.

Jesus said, “Simon son of John,
do you love me?”

He answered, “Yes, Lord,
you know that I love you.”

Love

For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay....

Romans 8:18-21

I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you;
I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing.

I will bless those who bless you,
and whoever curses you I will curse;
and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you.

Genesis 12:1-7

For better, for worse,
for richer, for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
'til death do us part.

The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise,
as some understand slowness. Instead he is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.

Questions for reflection:

- 1) If promises kept are a sign of love, how am I / looking right now?
- 2) What is God's covenant with me?
- 3) How does it shape my response to him?
